End of the words

It's like a death.

I word that came out of the mouth had a Glossy-black color.

It will collapse as poetry.

Most of the body follows the road of tragic degradation, but words to draw a beautiful curtain.

Please don't admonished as teacher.

Once you have to look like the ones that can't be seen, it's only worth about graffiti.

Darkest bird

If you are already at the depth of despair, I will receive your life.

You will continue alive in the palm of my hand.

I'm not a devil.

Even more, I'm not an angel.

And I've never seen both.

Here is the world of existence.

Presence is all.

I am darkest bird.

I want to ask you a question.

Who decided that life is fun?

Life is pain.

Pious people in a way that put the milk in coffee, would give meaning to pain.

To begin with, it isn't a theory.

People live from painful.

Slight pleasure.

To not be worth it.

accompanied by fun only hardship.

People shed tears to not be worth it.

We must live no matter how painful.

Please alive if painful.

We must live as creatures.

Please shed dark red blood from bare emotion.

You also will be able to think a little.

I say again.
